“Per Scie il rapporto con la materia si fa più tattile: il segno è creato per sottrazione piuttosto che per addizione. Così la luce, colpendo la superficie, rivela l’imperfezione del gesto”.

“With the Scie collection, the relationship with the material becomes more tactile: the mark is made through subtraction, rather than a process of addition. This way, when the light strikes the surface, it reveals the imperfection of the gesture.” M.R.
